“ Brandon, you and I were so young when we met you were 20 years old and I was 21 and it was love at first sight we never were apart day and night for over a year and Then I remember one morning you woke me up and said "Tanya wake up baby were getting married today" I jumped up got dressed and we went and got married. Our parents were sad cause we didn't have a wedding but we love each other and did it. Not more than a month later I got pregnant and he was excited! He took me to the dr I didn't know what was wrong with me and when he heard I was pregnant he wanted a boy and he got his little boy....Braden was born at 6 months and we had to go back and forth for 2months to the hospital to see him but it didn't bother us. We were young in love and happy. And I'm grateful for all the family trips even after we divorced and all the spending time together. Brandon was and always be my true love and I'm so happy I have Braden and I will always have a part of Brandon with me. We both dated people and moved on but you never love another person like your first love. I know Brandon will watch over Braden, his mom, Jennifer and I believe me. I talk to him now everyday and I make sure he knows I'm sorry things going wrong maybe Braden and I could have changed if we talked more, but I'm happy I got to tell him right before everything happened I'm sorry, I loved him and always will and feel peace in my heart. To all his friends I didn't know, just pray for his family. I have been part of this family for 21 years and they are all beautiful, kind, loving family. And to our son if you ever meet him or have met him he is our little mini "Brandon" please send prayers. To Brandon you know I will never forget you and I will love you always!

“ I will miss you so very much! I pray your heart and soul are now set free from all the heartache and torment you have endured your entire life! Your heart will forever be remembered as kind and loving! You loved us all as we did you! Even when you were upset, you apologized and we started where we left off! You touched everyone's heart especially all of us ladies and you loved us all alike! I believe we all felt as we were your soulmate! That's how special you made us feel! God bless you and I know you are happy and finally able to be free of everything and everyone that had a hold on you! Till we see each other again! I will always love you as you did me!

“ Brandon,

I hate to read this. I'm glad you called and we was able to talk one last time. I know you had your troubles but, deep down..you had a heart of gold and we could talk for hours and never run out of things to say. I will always remember our time together, going to church together, you teaching me Spanish, our late night phone calls or "Flipture" as we called it..lol..."flip open the bible, read the verse that caught our eye first and talk about it forever!", our nights of karaoke, Amberwood apartments, our house on Joslin, Oleander, our wild night at the Mexican restaurant, your dog that loved the perfume samples in magazines "I bet she was waiting on you!", the night my Momma went crazy on us...lol...so many memories! I guess I never told you...but, you will always have a special place in my heart! Guess you can really have that beer with Jesus now...one of your songs...but, the one song that always reminds me of you is "Turn The Page"...you always sang that song and so well too! I remember the first night we met at karaoke and you told me..."Rach, it's not about how shaky you start out the song...it's about how strong you finish the song! That's what people remember!".

I love you, Brandon Benton. There was a time that you was my best friend! Rest in peace my friend!

Love always,

Rachel Cain Halligan

Elaine and Jennifer & Braden and Josh...I am so sorry for your loss! Praying for peace and comfort through this horrible time! ?

“ Brandon, I remember the first time we met you were 20 years old and I was 21. I fell in love with you instantly! And from the night we met we were never apart! We spent day and night together having fun , going out, you playing the guitar to me " Guns and Roses " every rose has it's thorn" and I still have the song you wrote for Braden and sang to my belly when I was pregnant. You were my first love and I loved you more than anything and even after things went bad and we split up we still went on family vacations and had a blast!! Nobody knows but us how our relationship was. But like I told you and meant it I will always love you and you will always have my heart and I have a piece of you with me always!! Thank you for Braden! I promise you Brandon I will always take care of him and tell him all the crazy things we did, the fun things!! I love you always and nobody can take away what we had or still have. And Braden will know your loved forever!!!
