“ I met Ally in 2007 during a probation training class. We kept in touch over the years and were able to spend some time together before she moved back to Alabama. Ally was the most special person I have known. She was brilliant and funny and generous and thoughtful. Ally had a story for everything and an anecdote sure to put your problems into perspective. Ally gave all of herself as I don't think she knew any other way to be. Even across states and with all she was going through, Ally never stopped being a friend and someone who was there to listen and provide love. My life is changed for the better because of her and I thank God for sending us Ally for the time she was with us.

“ I met Allyson in the summer of 76 when I played baseball for the first time in Grant. She was our third baseman. Allyson was so cool, full of life, and fun even in our Little League days. I thought it was cool we had a girl on our team: Allyson was our best player too. I pitched and lost all 8 games that season. Who cares... we were just kids... How I wish I could go back with Allyson for two hours that summer to play on our own "Field of Dreams"... and lose our 9th game together. We would still laugh... still be excited about starting our 7th grade together... still have our hearts and minds open to the good things God had in store for us...

“ I am so glad I had the opportunity to meet, love-on and work with this beautiful spirit. Allyson was a jewel and I loved everything about her. She was my boss and friend and I loved her dearly. My sincerest condolences go out to her family. She will be missed terribly, but as we discussed in many of our personal talks, she was a woman of faith. Rest on Allyson and know that your faith has made you whole in Him. Love you!❤️❤️
