“ Sonny and Ladonna,

I've known Cory since he was in the eighth grade; I remember when he would come into the office we would talk about deer hunting. I remember him coming to my home and fixing my kitchen lights, and didn't charge me a penny. I appreciate that. I want to take this time to say thanks to you for putting forth the effort to help me through some tough times in my life. There's not many people who would do that. In fact you and Sandra were the only two people that I confided in when Nikki left for greener pastures; I wouldn't even talk to my parents, or my pastor about it. I'm so very sorry. Try to stay busy; that will help with not thinking too much. You will make it through this, but I know it is tough.
