“ Linda Speaks Brase (Ann Ledbetter's daughter) My sister, Sharon and I have so many wonderful memories with Delphine and family at "Aunt Ola and Uncle Elmer's" home in Grant. Always kittens in the barn. Riding on back of the tractor. Delphine was always the "cool" adult and so beautiful. Much love to everyone!!! ”

“And I know I know your name”

by Antoinette Sisco-Williamson, for the Late Delphine Veach 8.22.15

*And I know I know your hand, your face, your smile.
And I know you'd like to sit and talk a while.
I remember how we used to play, and Sunday after dinner say, "I love you".
And all the while I know you and, I wish I could remember your name.*

*When I called you on the phone, you took my call.
When our laughter would echo down the hall,
When each and every daily prayer, would follow you everywhere,
Whens the work was done, we'd have some fun, please again, tell me your name.*

*See I made you your favorite kind of pie, just because, so you need not ask "why?"
See the beautiful flowers all in bloom, they chase away the rainy days of gloom.
See we traveled here and there, going without a care.
See I know you, I just can't recall your name.*

*Going to buy your favorite thing, messages get lost on the strings.
Going on the highways bright, everything just seems so right,
Going from near to far, going like a rising star,
For I know Him, and I just can't call His name, But Jesus knows me and always knows my name.
Yes, Jesus knows me, and I'm glad He called , my name.*
