

Mrs. Doris Davis Edmonds Wood

February 17, 1937 - April 2, 2026

Mrs. Doris Davis Edmonds Wood, age 89 of Grant, Alabama passed away Thursday, April 2, 2026 at Barfield Health Care.

Doris was born in Marshall County on February 17, 1937 to Truman and Laura Bell Davis. Doris was married to Harold D. Edmonds for over 25 years. She was later married to Terry O. Wood for many years until her health started to decline. For the past 10 years, she has resided at Barfield Health Care. She was employed at Teledyne Firth Sterling for many years until she retired. In her retirement, she worked part-time as a filing clerk at the Madison County Jail.

First and foremost, Doris enjoyed doing and buying for her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. She was known many as a scholar of the Bible. She led a women's group at New Life and later as a resident at Barfield. She enjoyed serving several outreach ministries at New Life Methodist Church in Grant. She established and maintained the church's clothing closet.

Doris is survived by her children, Sherry Sutphin (Ricky) and Dr. Vince Edmonds (Tracey); grandchildren, Tara Bachus (Johnny), Ashlie Tidmore, Hunter Edmonds, Alix Kate Riggs (Cade), Chris Sutphin, Quentin Stone, and Ashleigh Fuss (Owen); great grandchildren, John Bachus (Lexi), Caroline

Bachus, Wyatt Sutphin (Madison), Christian Sutphin (Grace), Dru Brown, Grayson Fuss, and John Bradley Fuss; siblings, Ricky Davis and James Burroughs; and nieces and nephews, Jan Davis Moore (Darrell), Heather Davis, Jean Zorzoli, Janie Hutson, and Billy Davis. Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her daughter, Shelia Edmonds Tidmore; siblings, Alberta Gregory and Larry "Jack" Davis; and nephews, Bobby Davis and Joan Helms.

Funeral services will be held at Grant Memorial Chapel on Monday, April 6, 2026 at 3 p.m. Rev. Beaul Hunkapiller will officiate. The family will receive friends on Monday beginning at 1 p.m. Burial will be in Walker Cemetery in the Hebron Community.
