“ I missed the singing while he mowed and told him so. He loved the Lord and his singing showed it as well as other contemporary songs for our age! I am thankful for the opportunity to know you both.

“ Cathy, I remember when you and Jimmy moved your family from Huntsville to Grant so that y'all could raise Jeff and Jermey in Church at Lake City Assembly. It was important that the boys participate in youth group activities without the burden of driving back and forth to Huntsville. That one decision on your part forever changed my outlook on the value of staying put in a Church with young children. It proved itself true in our family and I give that advice to other families as well.

I will never forget brother Jimmy praying in the Spirit. He was a humble man in the natural but a mighty warrior in the Spirit. I count knowing Jimmy as special blessing from God. I call him my friend.
