

Mr. James Lee Talkington

May 23, 1959 - July 30, 2025

James Lee Talkington, a resident of the Swearengin Community of Marshall County passed away on July 30th at Erlanger Medical Center in Chattanooga, Tennessee following a brief illness.

He was born in Scottsboro, Alabama on May 23, 1959 to Mary Lou Sisk Talkington and Buster Lee Talkington. He attended Plainview High School in DeKalb County.

James lived for several years in Waycross, Georgia before returning to the Scottsboro area.

Known to some of his friends as "Bicycle" because that is how he got around in Swearengin. He worked as a house painter.

James is survived by his little dog, Blackie, who thought he hung the moon and stars.

In keeping with his wishes, James was cremated and no visitation or services are planned. Grant Memorial Chapel assisted with arrangements.

Tribute Wall

AT

“ I didn't know Mr. James well (only through Ms Martha, aka Grandmommy). He was a sweet man who loved his pets well. God bless you Mr. James.

Anisia Tellefsen - August 05, 2025 at 12:58 PM