“ I only met this wonderful lady about 3 month ago and my spirit said here is a sweet wonderful spirit for you to connect to and did i connect. <3 She was the mother of a good church friend of mine and she became sick and i went and visited. What a fantastic lady she was. She was a very highly intelligent lady and she shared life stories with me and it was so hard to leave her and come home. I was excited to visit her every day and hear her life stories and share our feelings about God and our children. We laughed together like two little teen girls and we shared lunch or snacks and we prayed together. I am 68 yr old today and she was 82. Miss Jean was 14 yr older than myself, but those special friend sharing times she and i were only teens. She was very sick and she still had this school girl nature about her that made me feel young again. She also made me feel strong again with her sharing her life's experience. She was a very educated lady and very artistic one also. She was so proud of her children and g-children and it was obvious that she loved people with and unconditional love. What more can i say to her family, but that she loved them with all her heart and she knew she might be going home soon and she wanted them to know she would like to stay with them, but her body would not allow her to remain here much longer and she was preparing to go to that heavenly place we all call home. I feel this wonderful sweet lady will be preparing a home there to greet her family and friends. I can see her painting beautiful pictures of what she see's and decorating heaven with her beauty. Mrs. Jean you will be missed by this friend and i will never forget the motherly way you treated me and the sister chats we had. Heaven gained a very precious Angel and i never lost you, but i will still be chatting with you each day in my memories of you. Thank you for your love and for the delicious birthday cake your son cooked for me. Your light still shines through him. He is a wonderful spirit and i see you in him. Now he will be my son as long as i am here i will take good care of him. Like the song says; Everything happens for a reason. And now the Angels sing.
