“ I met Kenny through my association with the caving community. We became very good friends. Kenny and I used to spend Saturdays at Valhalla, a 226 ft deep pit in Jackson County and spend the whole day climbing the pit, and relaxing, enjoying a meal together, or exchanging stories. This is how I got to know Kenny. He was always full of energy and enthusiasm, always had a happy smile and a strong sense of humor. He was friendly, warm and kind to everyone, generous and welcoming to all, uplifting and never had an unkind word for anyone. He was always well liked and admired by everyone I knew.
