“ I was just watching a show about old cars. I started reminiscing about my great friend Kevin Zylo and how we used to mess with cars in high school. I have not seen him since then, because we both went in our military directions, but I'm sorry to see that he is gone. I remember his mother, and she was a wonderful person to me! Carl D. Ashcraft

“ So sad and heartbroken for my extended family Mom, Dad, Sis, Brother , nephews, nieces and sister-in-law. I thinks of you all many time throughout the day and can only hope you cherish all the good Kevin did in his life.

Kevin was all the things a man should strive for, a loving husband, father and grandfather!

“ I can't believe this. Kevin was the crazy cousin who popped in all the time unannounced. We always had so much fun, sitting and talking for hours. He loved to tell stories about the family and growing up. Kevin would show up at the front door at the craziest times. My family always knew he was there because of his loud boisterous voice with the southern twang. We will all miss him dearly!

“ Loved seeing all those photos! So, so, sad to see Kevin gone so soon and so young! He was our oldest cousin, and the ringleader. He was full of life and love for his family, since he was a little boy. Wish we could make the service. God Bless you! Sending prayers from Indiana.

With love,

Annette (Wilson) Austin, Will Austin, Faith, Jonah and Andrew

“ We have so many wonderful memories of Kevin and our visits with him when he came to Florida. His love for his family, his great sense of humor, and his genuine love for life stands out in all of our memories. He was one in a million and he will be very missed. Our hearts, thoughts, and prayers are with his family.
