

Mrs. Louise Weaver Lassiter

April 9, 1937 - September 17, 2025

Louise Weaver Lassiter, 88, went to be with the Lord on September 17, 2025, at her home, spending her last day with her beloved family and life-long friends.

She was born in 1937 to Otis and Nancy Weaver of Grant. She was preceded in death by her parents, two sisters, Glenda Faye Weaver and Helen McLendon of Troy, three brothers, Wendell Davis and Franklin Weaver of Grant, and Charles Weaver of Serepta, Louisiana, one son, Larry Stevenson of Grant, one son-in-law, Richard Brown of Georgia, and her husband, Michael Lassiter.

She is survived by two sisters, Ellen Ridgeway (David) of Huntsville and Linda May Miller of Rock Ridge, one brother, MacArthur Weaver (Judy) of Valdosta, Georgia, two daughters, Linda Bodine (Jimmy) of Grant and Glenda Brown of Georgia; six grandchildren, Melinda Parks, Beverly (Brian) Meeks, Rodney (Amber) Bodine, Bradley Stevenson, Jamie (Jeff) May, Todd (Kate) Brown; nine great-grandchildren, Mackenzie (Klaus) Simon, Mackayla (Joseph) White, Madison (Vance) Rickman, Dalton Parks, Ty Bodine, Elli Bodine, Colt Brown, Carter Brown, Grayson May; three great-great grandchildren, Hudson White, Hallie White, and Tripp Simon, along with many nieces and nephews.

Louise lived her entire life in the Grant community. She worked for several companies in the area, including the Benham Mill, Grant Manufacturing, Kappler Industries, and the Burlington Factory. Her love of hospitality and fellowshiping at her table with her home cooked meals was known by all. As a young adult she had been the cook at a small cafe in Grant.

Louise accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior at a young age and sought to serve Him, fellowshiping at Grace Fellowship Baptist Church and New Home Church of God. She brought joy to all who knew her, remained loyal to her family and lifelong friends and ready to adopt new friends as her own family. Louise had a deep connection to God's creation in her vegetable, fruit and flower gardens, giving away her produce even in the last days of her life. She witnessed to her Lord's saving grace to the end, assuring those she loved that she would "see us in heaven."

Rodney Bodine, David Harris, Brian Meeks, Vance Rickman, Klaus Simon, and Joseph White are serving as pallbearers, with Brad Stevenson as honorary pallbearer.

The family will receive visitors at Grant Memorial Chapel on Friday September 19th from 1:00 p.m. until 3:00 p.m. with a memorial service at 3:00 p.m., Pastor Drew Smith officiating. Burial will follow in Kelly Chapel Cemetery in Swaengin.
