“ I make my way back to the cemetery, everyone is long since gone, the dust is settled, the burial trappings are gone, the flowers are wilted from the hot summer sun, but there is something more beautiful in the air; it is peace. There is something comforting about the silent hush of a cemetery. Saints are resting, and Mother has taken her place among them and she is at rest now too. I bow my head and pay her one last tribute. “Thank you mother for all the love and devotion, for your faithfulness to the Lord, and for showing us how to live life right. We will sorely miss you, but your testimony lives on. Goodbye my sweet mother. Rest well from all of your labors, and from all the hardship, trials, sadness, sorrow, pain & suffering you endured in your lifetime. Resurrection day is coming and we will be reunited again in the sweet by and by. Love lasts forever! Amen —James Harrison

That is the most beautiful tribute I have ever heard...aunt Marie was a special Angel on this earth. She was a saint. She always loved everyone, and would do anything she could for them. I sure do miss her!

“Aunt Marie was a caring person and one of the wittiest people I have ever known. She always had something funny to say, especially when she greeted you. One of her best was "I sure am glad you got to see me today". Well it sure was nice whenever I got to see Aunt Marie. Not only was she funny but she was also a great cook. She made the best orange pineapple cake ever. We Love You Aunt Marie and will miss you terribly. You are no longer suffering but resting peacefully. We all have fond memories of you and they will remain with us forever. Tim & Sherry

“ To Mrs. Marie's children- You know already how wonderful she was but she was such a special lady to me. She reminded me so much of my sweet grandmother who was always so joyful. I sort of adopted her and Mr. Gene as my grandparents since all of mine are gone. My favorite memory will always be this past June 6, she called and sang Happy Birthday to me. It made my day! After we spoke for just a moment afterwards, I hung up and cried and cried because I knew how sick she was. I loved her so but I know I'll see her again, for she is in the arms of our Savior. Praying for you all during this time.

*Love to you all,
