“I just want you to be happy, I want to see you graduate, I want to see you succeed, I love you, and I’m proud of you.”- Tammy Shah. A mother’s words to her children that won’t be forgotten.

“Baby I love you.”- Tammy Shah. The words of a wife that will always be cherished.

Tammy loved life, she had battled cancer four times and was a fierce fighter. She tried to live her life to the fullest. Always trying to find things to do for fun. Whether it was a day at the lake or just a movie at home she was always trying to have some kind of fun.

She loved people, and she loved to make them laugh. She would play pranks, tell jokes, and even act just plain silly to get people laughing. She would wrestle and play with her kids and grandkids as much as she could. Her love for her husband and her children was unmatched, and the love she held for her family and friends was deep and strong.

Tammy was forgiving, and she wanted anyone who felt as if they had done her wrong to know that she had forgiven them. These past several years she had really reconnected with her faith in God, and now she goes to the place the Lord has prepared for her. Her work on earth is done.

Tammy was Born October 30th, 1963 in Troy, Michigan and passed away in Tucson, Arizona March 23rd, 2022. She was one of six children, and was preceded in death by her parents Eugene and Bonnie Wooten, and her brother Roy Wooten. She is survived by her Husband Syed Mussadiq Ali Shah; her sons Bradford Eugene Buchanan and Jason Cole Shah; her daughters Natalya Bree Shah and Nadia Shrie Shah, her grandchildren Jessie O'Brian Shah, Aliyah Nichelle Potter, Brayden Wayne Buchanan, Brent Jefferson Buchanan, Aliya Farrah-Michelle Shah, and Bryson Thomas Buchanan. Her siblings Tabatha Beck, Rex Wooten, Tex Wooten, and Lex Wooten.

Tammy always said that she didn't want flowers at her funeral, she would rather have them while she was alive to enjoy them. In lieu of the flowers please make a donation to the Cancer Treatment Centers of America or St. Jude Hospital. Thank you.

“ Mom was the best mom anyone could ask for, she was so funny and kind and would put you first, I remember when she had a job when we used to live in Texas, I would come home from school with gifts on my bed, one of my favorite memories was when I was sick at the movie theater I was having terrible anxiety and she came to my rescue she sat with me and talked to me about her pranking my dad and other great things about life and we snuck in the movie to watch the rest of it even tho she didn't have a ticket which was funny. All my friends wished she was their mom thats how great she was. she supported me through everything. I miss her so much

“ I just found out a couple of days ago of Tammy's going home. Tammy's family were talented musicians. My daddy, Bill Campbell, and hers would get together for jam sessions at the Wooten's home many, many years ago. Tammy could play the piano and sing so beautifully. One memory that resounds in me, was a song that Tammy played for me at school. There once was a piano up on stage of the gym at DAR. On many occasions us kids were allowed up there during PE if we had forgot our gym clothes. On this particular day, Tammy played a gospel song, that I catch myself singing from time to time. She played, "I'll See You in the Rapture" by Charles B. Feltner. Just like many high school friends, you lose touch and people move, but I never forgot her. This is for you, Tammy:

*"If we never meet again
On this earth, my precious friend
And if the blood of Jesus Christ
Has redeemed us from our sin
Then for us there'll be a meetin'
What a hallelujah greeting
I'll see you in the rapture some sweet day."*
