“ I will always see the handsome navy man that wed my cousin Judy Bale , during the Vietnam War. I remember him talking with my father about the differences in his service compared to my Dad's. Terry was on a mine sweeper and my Dad was on a repair ship. I remember how in love Judy was with him. I was 12 or 13 and I remember them taking me to POP park. I remember when Sonja was born and how tiny she was. Unfortunately you all moved back you Alabama and I did not get to know you girls. Your mom kept track of me and would call me often to check on me. May God bless Terry soul and continue to bless the girls, and their extended families. Rest in peace ,the server of the lord.
